PICCOLA'S NOVEMBER CABLE SHOW FEATURES PART-ONE OF HARRISBURG'S INTERNATIONAL PLACE NEIGHBORHOOD TOUR

HARRISBURG ó Senator Jeffrey E. Piccola (R-15) has announced the topic for his November 2007 cable television program, "Piccola's Report from Harrisburg."

This month's program will highlight Part-one of the International Place Neighborhood tour, an area located within the historic business district in the City of Harrisburg located on Third and Chestnut Streets. Situated in the heart of this neighborhood is the International House, an independent non-profit organization housing students and interns from around the world and which recently marked its fifth anniversary. This eclectic collection of students is interested in furthering their education and sharing in a cultural experience in such a unique and exciting environment. In Part-one of this show, Piccola tours the residential quarters and talks with students and community partners affiliated with the International House.

Part-two of this series will air in December and feature the restaurants and businesses located in the International Place Neighborhood including Bricco, The Benjamin Olewine III Culinary Arts Center, Olewine's Meat and Cheese House, Ciao Bakery, and the El Sol Restaurant. In the New Year, Part-three will showcase the final stops of the tour with visits to the Messiah College Harrisburg Institute facility and the Harrisburg University of Science and Technology.

Piccola's television program will air throughout the month of November on the second and fourth Monday, Wednesday, and Friday in the Harrisburg area on Channel 20 (Harrisburg Broadcast Network), Tuesdays at 7 p.m. on Channel 64 in the Hershey area (Comcast), and Thursdays at 5:30 p.m. on Channel 18 in the Lykens area. Piccola's program can also be viewed from his website at www.piccola.org.

Piccola's 15th Senatorial District includes portions of Dauphin and York Counties.
